

Text Structure Booklet

Requirements: Each page of your booklet will include a definition of the term and an original example (do not take examples from worksheets we have completed). If you decide to work with a partner, each of your examples must also include a picture.

Terms to Define:

Text Structure: chronological, cause and effect, sequence/order of importance, spatial, problem and solution, and compare and contrast (six total).

Example:

Chronological	Spatial
Definition: events occur at a specific time and are organized in order of time. Stories are told chronologically.	Definition:
Example: I woke up this morning with a rumble in my stomach. I ate a bowl of cereal, brushed my teeth, and got on the bus. When I got to school, it was raining, and I realized I left my umbrella at home. I did not have a very good day.	Example:

Text Structure Booklet Rubric

Completion

0 ----- 1 ----- 2 ----- 3 ----- 4 ----- 5
 Project is far from completion. Missing a one or two things Complete

Accuracy

0 ----- 1 ----- 2 ----- 3 ----- 4 ----- 5
 Work is consistently misleading or mistaken showing a lack of understanding. Minor mistakes in understanding Accurate

Effort

0 ----- 1 ----- 2 ----- 3 ----- 4 ----- 5
 Work is so sloppy and rushed that it is difficult to understand. Student is capable of much better work Strong Effort